

PUBLIC SALE OF THE REESE MERCANTILE CO.'S STOCK

VINITA, OKLAHOMA

This is the second week of the Great Sale and the great work still goes on. Each day adds momentum to the crowds of enthusiastic shoppers that throng this store from early morning until closing. They come, and come again, more eager than ever to buy the wonderful bargains presented. Would you grow enthusiastic if you could buy Ladies' 50c Hose for 19c, or a 50c Silk for 19c, or a 10c Lace for 3c the yard? Yet such bargains as these by the dozens, yes dozens and dozens of even better values await your coming. Can you in justice to yourself and family overlook the chance to save dollars upon dollars of your hard earned money. 'Tis an event that comes but seldom in a life time. 'Tis an opportunity that should bring gladness to the heart of every thrifty man or woman in this vicinity. No matter what you have on hand lay it aside and come. You will see the red ticket and the blue pencil of price destruction staring you in the face. Now for the greatest of all bargain days—

Wednesday, Aug. 28, Thursday, Aug. 29, Friday, Aug. 30, Saturday, Aug. 31, Each of these days will go down in history of retail merchandising as the greatest bargain days in the history of Vinita.

NOVEL METHOD OF REPAIRING

A great deal of inconvenience and probably a great deal of energy was saved Mr. C. M. Martin yesterday afternoon by a peculiar thought which struck him at exactly the right time. Mr. Martin had made a bicycle ride some fifteen miles from this city to announce a sale that is soon to be held and was on his return and yet about twelve miles from town when he punctured his rear tire. Mr. Martin did not have any kind of repair material with him and was much annoyed at the thought of a twelve mile walk to town when he chanced to discover a book of postage stamps in his pocket and the happy thought struck him. He removed the outer casing from the tire and pasted two, two-cent stamps over the puncture, replaced the outer tire, pumped air into it and rode the machine to town without further mishap. In describing the affair last evening Mr. Martin said that he was lucky to have the stamps with him this trip, but in the future they will occupy an important place in his repair kit.
